Early Sunday morning the eating stands in the alley back of Moseley's drug store were overturned by unknown parties. The persons guilty of this act may have thought they were having fun, but they should remember that the proprietors of the places are losers by their deeds.
Mrs. S. Alex Smith delightfully entertained her married lady friends last Thursday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Carawell. Fling was indulged in and the game was played with much spirit and interest. In the evening the younger society set were entertained at this hospitable home in a most charming manner.
Dr. E. P. Mickel, of Madison, and Rev. R. A. Baker of Argyle, arrived in the city Monday and have been conducting a series of revival meetings at the Presbyterian church this week. The meetings have been largely attended and the many interesting discourses delivered by these two able divines were heartily enjoyed by our people.—Live Oak Democrat.
Hon. J. R. Wilson spent Sunday with his family at Hamburg and returned to his legislative duties Sunday night. Mr. Wilson informed the writer that he thought the Madison county road law would pass both houses of the legislature without any trouble, and also, that he was of the opinion that a measure would be enacted into law for the building of a governor's mansion at Tallahassee.
Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these tablets a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by all druggists and medicine dealers.
Oswald Griffin has been in the city several days this week. His friends were all glad to see him, but regretted his dilapidated appearance. Oswald was the victim of an accident while playing baseball last week that resulted in the breaking of his arm and the dislocation of his shoulder. Though somewhat disfigured he says he will get in the game again as soon as his wounds heal.
Claude Moody, who for several years was an attaché of the Democrat, is now located at Portland, Ore. In a letter to a friend in Live Oak this week, he states that he is living on the bright side of life and will soon be married to one of the prettiest girls on the Pacific slope. He contemplates a visit to this State in the near future, his bride accompanying him.—Democrat. Claude is a Madison county boy, and his many friends here will be glad to learn of his good fortune.
R. H. Beverly, a prominent capitalist of Mobile, Ala., but who has large interests in West Florida, was in the city Monday en route to Valdosta. On being interrogated by the New Enterprise man Mr. Beverly stated that he was well pleased with the appearance of Madison and on his return from Georgia expected to remain here a few days. This gentleman has done much towards the upbuilding of portions of West Florida and is now engaged, or will be soon, in the building of a railroad from Apalachicola to River Junction.
GREATLY ALARMED
By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Mr. H. P. Burhage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C. had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burhage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after taking two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists and medicine dealers.
